

Tereshchenko Kateryna

Kateryna Tereshchenko was born in Ukraine. Since her earliest childhood she has been surrounded by musicians. In 2006, she graduated from the Lysenko Special Musical School in Kiev, where she studied under Prof. Boris Fedorov. From 2007 Kateryna continued her studies in Zürich at the Zurich University of the Arts under Prof. Konstantin Scherbakov and Prof. Ulrich Koella. During this time she won a prize at the Scholarship competition of "Migros Kulturprozent" in 2011 as well in 2012.

Straight after graduation of Master Specialized Music Performance in 2013 she enrolled in the Orchester Akademie program at the Opernhaus Zürich where she was active taking part in several shows during last three years. Among others with performance on «Die Soldaten» of B.A. Zimmermann, «Die Hamletmaschine» of W.Rihm, Balanchine Ballett «Thema mit vier Variationen» for Piano and String Orchestra of Paul Hindemith.

In 2015 she produced her first CD recording with piano works of Chopin, Brahms and Rachmaninov. Kateryna has performed as a soloist, chamber musician and a collaborative pianist at concerts and festivals in Ukraine, Italy, Germany, Poland, the Czech Republic and Switzerland.