

Yoko KUWAHARA

Yoko Kuwahara, born 1990 in Yamaguchi/Japan, attended her first piano lesson at the age of 4. She was a student at the renowned music gymnasium in Toho and studied with Keiki Tekeuchi and Ikuyo Nakamichi at the Music University in Tokio until she graduated with distinction. 2013 she continued her studies in Lübeck with Konstanze Eickhorst, graduating her master degree in 2016, and with Inge-Susann Römhild, graduating in 2018 (piano accompaniment master). Presently, Yoko Kuwahara is member of the faculty at the Musikhochschule Lübeck and the Hochschule Theater und Musik in Rostock.

Yoko Kuwahara received further artistic inspiration from masterclasses with Jacques Rouvier, Pascal Devoyon, Diane Andersen, Evgenij Koroliov, Klaus Hellwig a.o. She has performed in Japan, Belgium, France and Germany as soloist and chamber musician. She regularly takes part in opera productions in Lübeck.